

Compound refers to more than one. Compound modeling allows you to take 2 or more simple models and create a complex model

Boolean

The most common Boolean technique is "Subtraction". Multiple models intersect then subtract from the other model.

Scatter

Scatter takes two simple models and duplicates one onto the other.

Compound Objects

ASSIGNMENT:

Model, as accurately as you can, the three objects below .

